

THE NEW DOUBLE ALBUM FROM UNDERGROUND ELECTRO ARTISTS 3KSTATIC.

FOUNDED in 1999 as an experiment in 'post-Industrial house', 3kStatic long ago staked its claim at the forefront of the deep underground IDM scene, and now turns its eye toward mainstream recognition with the expansive new 22-track double disc and digital release Where's Our Piece of the Groovy World? on the dPulse Recordings/INGrooves/Neo labels.

Having drawn mention for recent releases in Billboard, The Hollywood Reporter and CNN and best-known for college FM radio singles 'Drumbeat Litany', 'All The Way Alive' and the #1 track 'The Music', 3kStatic now follows the successful release Perversion: For Profit on Sony BMG/Cargo Germany with a stunning collection of standout tracks and collaborations with no fewer than two dozen very special guest artists.

Heavily inspired by both the post-punk fury of electronic music pioneers Cabaret Voltaire and the free-for-all shows of Parliament Funkadelic, Where's Our Piece of the Groovy World? combines searing social commentary and genre-bending aural illusions, and serves it up with the help of an immense roster of players.

The result stretches the bounds of electronica while remaining true to the band's roots....surely an expansive work that will stand the test of time both as both art and activism.

The roster of guests collaborating with 3kStatic on Where's Our Piece of The Groovy World? reads like a Who's Who in great progressive music, including: New York hip hop producers Pete Miser and Real Live Show; vocalists Annette Streen (Venus Hum, Blue Man Group) and Joy Askew (Peter Gabriel, Laurie Anderson); percussionist Robert Bond (Les McCann); legendary godfather of funk George Clinton and the P*Funk All-Stars, and many others. Also joining in are emerging remix artists from around the globe, including Canadian star DJ Joel Armstrong and UK force Max Hall.
